
Question: How many charged batteries are ready for departure?
Streaming source input Committed input
Illustrative generated thoughts
Token arrival / time
tokens arrive continuously
EDU wait
Sentence wait
The field team begins with 24 charged batteries;
eight are used during setup
and three fail a voltage check before five replacements arrive.
Read
Boundary Detector
e1
e2
e3
e4
Submit
Large Language Model
Think
<think>
FIRST THOUGHT · EDU
Start with 24 charged batteries.
Eight are used, leaving 24 − 8 = 16.
Three fail the check, leaving 16 − 3 = 13.
Five replacements arrive: 13 + 5 = 18.
Answer: 18 charged batteries.
</think>
Earlier first thought
Sentence policy: buffer until final period
Full sentence
FIRST THOUGHT · SENTENCE
24 − 8 − 3 + 5 = 18 charged batteries.
Alternative boundary policies; same LLM:
EDU boundary (stream at each detected EDU)
Sentence boundary (buffer until final period)